

In our selection of drinks, we not only pay attention to an international assortment, but we also value regionality and individuality in all areas and, if possible, it should be self-made.

Our employees are not limited to the distribution of "finished" products. They are on fire when it comes to cooking, reducing, setting and creating cocktails.

In the first pages you can see what our Good Life Bar-Team under the direction of Fernando and Andreas can offer you!

Since our environment is very important to us, we rely exclusively on 100% degradable straws from sawdust.
